

$20,000 REWARD TO FIND SUSPECT WHO SHOT PRECINCT 7 DEPUTY ALDEN CLOPTON

It was announced at a press conference at Crime Stoppers Houston on yesterday that the reward leading to the charging and/or arrest of the suspect(s) involved in the attempted capital murder case of Deputy Alden Clopton has been increased to up to $20,000. The initial reward of $10,000 is from the Fallen Hero Project through Crime Stoppers of Houston and the 100 Club. The additional $10,000 is from the Texas Crime Stoppers Fallen Hero Reward Program offered through the Office of the Governor.

After being hospitalized for approximately two (2) months at Memorial Herman Hospital, Deputy Clopton was released, Thursday, June 2nd, and will continue recovery at home with the love and support of close family and friends. Deputy Clopton's estimated recovery time for injuries as a result of the shooting is anywhere from 6 months to a year.

The Precinct 7 deputy was shot multiple times late in the evening on Wednesday, April 13th, by a gunman who has yet to be identified and still at large. HPD Homicide Division released two videos during the press conference of the person they believe to be the attempted capital murder suspect in the case. HPD continues to investigate the shooting and is actively pursuing all leads.

Constable May Walker urges citizens to call and give any information to help lead to the arrest of the perpetrator responsible for the heinous crime of shooting and critically injuring Deputy Alden Clopton. Information may be reported by calling Crime Stoppers at 713-222-TIPS (8477) or submitted online at www.crimestoppers.org. Tips may also be sent via a text message by texting the following: TIP610 plus the information to CRIMES (274637) or via their mobile app (Crime Stoppers Houston). All tipsters remain anonymous. Tipsters can also call the Houston Police Department Homicide Division.
